

PCL and multi-ligament injuries

This pre-course uses a case based approach to discuss the management of PCL disruption in the setting of multi-ligament knee injuries. Via presentation and discussion of different multi-ligament injury combinations and scenarios, the international panel will highlight the key points in assessing and managing these complex injuries.