

Osteotomy for the Management of Knee Ligament Injuries.

Ronald J. van Heerwaarden

In this presentation the importance of bone deformities as a cause for knee instabilities and knee ligament injuries is explained. The power of deformity correction with osteotomies in adding knee stability and to some extent replace the role of knee ligament reconstructions is also presented.